

APIRA 2016

8th Asia-Pacific Interdisciplinary Research in Accounting Conference

Hosted by the School of Accounting
13–15 July 2016
RMIT University City Campus
Melbourne, Australia

Paper submissions due: 15 February 2016

The triennial APIRA conference moves to the City of Melbourne, following on from its predecessors Sydney (1995), Osaka (1998), Adelaide (2001), Singapore (2004), Auckland (2007), Sydney (2010) and Kobe (2013).

APIRA is the premier interdisciplinary accounting research conference in the Asia-Pacific region, rotating in a three year cycle with the Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Accounting conference (IPA 2015, Stockholm) and the Critical Perspectives on Accounting conference (CPA 2014, Toronto, Canada). Together, these conferences provide an international forum and showcase for research on the social, political, and institutional aspects of accounting theory and practice.

APIRA 2016 will be held in July 2016 in the Swanston Academic Building at the RMIT University City Campus, in Melbourne, Australia.

RESERVE APIRA 2016 IN YOUR FORWARD PLANNING DIARY NOW!

Conference plenary speakers will include:

- John Dumay (Macquarie University, Australia)
- Lisa Evans (University of Stirling, UK)
- Cheryl R Lehman (Hofstra University, USA)
- Christopher Napier (Royal Holloway, University of London, UK)
- Ileana Steccolini (Bocconi University, Italy)

The deadline for electronic submission of papers is 15 February 2016 (only full papers considered for refereeing). Submissions must be made through the submissions form page (available from October 1, 2015).

Enquiries: eighth.apira@rmit.edu.au

Conference Convenor: Professor Garry Carnegie, RMIT University

Scientific Committee Convenor: Professor Nava Subramaniam, RMIT University

www.rmit.edu.au/apira2016

in partnership with

